NEW YORK DIGS OUT, DIGS IN FOR MORE — Mrs. Frank Tremaine digs out the family car in Scarsdale, N.Y. as tons of snow buried the northeastern part of the country. More than 14 inches fell on New York City and its outlying areas in a near blizzard that increased the total snow accumulated since December 11 to 60 inches.

Man's Best Friend Really Is; Saves Family from Fire Death

A barking dog saved five lives early today at the James Moorehead home on Trimmer Road, Route 1, Stoutsville.

The 9-room frame home was destroyed by fire. The dog, disturbed by the flames, woke the family at about 3 a. m.

Mrs. Moorehead and her four children were asleep. The father had left at about midnight for work at the local DuPont plant.

Due to the loud barking, Mrs. Moorehead was able to get her children out of the house without injury and notify the Circleville Fire Department in time to save many of the furnishings on the first floor. She told firemen the dog had started staying in the house at night only recently.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started in the bathroom of the home. The cause was not determined. According to Mrs. Moorehead, an electric heater in the bathroom was turned off.

LOCAL officials estimated damage at about $13,000 not including furnishings destroyed on the second floor of the home.

About a month ago, firemen were called to the home to douse a minor fire in the foundation of the house. According to the Moorehead family, the home was built in 1803. Fire Chief Talmer Wise said an explosion rocked the home shortly after he arrived. The cause was not determined.

Chief Wise said flames were pouring from the house when he and Fireman Glenn Jones arrived. The tanker truck consumed two loads of water.

Firemen said a small outbuilding near the house also was destroyed. Deputy Sheriff William Pontious was dispatched to the scene. He and neighbors helped remove furniture from the lower story.

9 Accidents Here Saturday; Three Result in Injuries

Circleville Police had their hands full here Saturday investigating nine accidents brought on by slippery streets.

Fortunately only three of the crashes involved injuries, according to officers. Five persons suffered minor hurts, they said.

Two of the injured were pedestrians who were shaken up in an unusual accident at 11:50 a. m. on E. Main St. near Mingo St. Suffering bruises were Shirley J. Merchant, 26, and Christopher Merchant, 2½.

The accident involved three cars and one of the autos left the scene before the driver could be identified. One of the cars was driven by J. R. Adams, 53, Logan St., and one by Ellis L. Gordon, 41, Jamestown.

Sgt. Turney Ross said the Adams car was stopped behind an auto which was backing into a parking space. He said the unidentified car, attempting to pull away from the curb, struck the Gordon auto which was traveling on Main St.

Sgt. Ross said the Gordon vehicle skidded on the ice and struck the two pedestrians. He said the Adams and Gordon autos suffered moderate damage. Two passengers were slightly hurt in a two-car collision on Georgia Road at 2:50 p. m. Suffering slight bumps were Sarah Mallett, 9, and Teresa Mallett, 6.

They were passengers in a car operated by Larry G. Mallett, 19, of 1069 Georgia Road. The other auto was driven by Suzanne Gibson, 18, of 265 Sunset Drive.

Sgt. Ross said the accident came as Mallett was backing out of a driveway onto Georgia Road. His vehicle collided with the Gibson car which was approaching.

Ross said both cars suffered minor damage. Another pedestrian was injured at 3 p. m. at Washington and Logan Sts. Suffering abrasions of the face was Lloyd Walls, 11, Lowery Lane.

Police Sgt. Leroy Hawks said Walls was checked at Berger Hospital, then treated by a local physician.

The car was operated by Lawrence Payne, 41, of 154 York St. He told Sgt. Hawks he was headed south on Washington St. when the youth suddenly ran in front of his auto near the Winorr Canning Co.

Ohio Legislators Ponder Further Aid to Unemployed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With one eye on Washington developments, the Ohio legislature reconvenes late today with the hope that early action can be taken to extend jobless benefits beyond the present 26-week limit.

Republican leaders hope to have an unemployment compensation bill through the House and waiting in the Senate when Congress finally acts on its own extender proposal.

That will mean more speed in the House Industry and Labor Committee than has been shown so far. It has been wrestling for three weeks with a series of widely varied compensation proposals. Congressional action is expected within two weeks.

Senate leaders want to be ready to amend the Ohio bill in any necessary manner to bring state legislation into line with the federal program and fire the emergency measure through the General Assembly.

Only the bare bones of the federal program have shown themselves up to now. Congress, at the suggestion of President Kennedy, probably will offer states loans sufficient to cover a 50 per cent increase in their jobless benefit programs for persons who exhausted their benefits since last Oct. 31.

It is not yet clear just how many changes will be needed in Ohio law to put the federal extender into effect, but the Ohio legislative leadership appears ready to accept any reasonable change in order to get the emergency program into effect.

One of the week's legislative highlights will be Gov. Michael

V. DiSalle's submission to the legislature of a special message dealing with Ohio's formula on which utility rates are based.

The present law prescribes the so-called RCN formula — reconstruction cost new, less observed depreciation. DiSalle tried and failed in 1959 to get a Democratic-dominated legislature to accept a formula which would give equal weight to "reconstruction cost new" and "fair value."

His upcoming message, he says, will try to follow one typical example of what he calls exorbitant utility rates through the entire process of their approval.

Ohio State's marvelous basketball team has enough fans to move the Ohio Senate to change its meeting time. The Senate will meet at 4 p. m. today instead of the usual 8 p. m. in order that basketball buffs such as Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, can attend the Indiana - Ohio State game.

Ike, Mamie Entrain for California Spa

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower put Pennsylvania's severe winter behind them and headed for California today.

The former president and his wife left this state capital by train for Palm Desert where they will stay at the exclusive El Dorado Golf Club, probably for two months.

"I am going out to get a little sunshine," a beaming Eisenhower said.

Brace Yourselves! More Snow Forecast for Area

Two to Four Inches, Weatherman Says

Like kicking a man when he's down, the weatherman said today that Pickaway Countians may get from two to four inches of new snow tonight and tomorrow.

The weatherman, becoming more unpopular each day, calls for cloudy skies this afternoon and evening with light snow beginning around midnight, with a possibility of two to four inches accumulating over Tuesday.

Many local persons are blaming the defenseless groundhog and others the nuclear tests. Government weather authorities say that air currents have shifted for some unknown reason.

The first snow fell in Pickaway County on November 29 and with the exception of a few days the first part of December, local residents have had to use snow shovels and auto-tire chains since.

Snow spread across the central section of the nation today after piling up to a foot in depth on the Texas Panhandle.

The new snow zone extended from Minnesota to northern Arkansas. Falls of 2 to 4 inches were expected in sections of eastern Missouri and southern Illinois.

The heavy snow Sunday in the Panhandle area of Texas derailed three freight trains. A cattleman died of exposure in 15-degree weather after his truck stalled in a snowbank.

A tornado hit the Flour Bluff district near Corpus Christi, Tex., Sunday, but damage was light. Snow continued to fall early today in northern Texas.

Rain, snow and sleet put a treacherous coating on highways in Oklahoma, eastern Kansas, Iowa and Missouri.

The East strove to throw off the crippling effects of snow that ranged up to 40 inches late last week. Air, rail and bus schedules were still a scramble Sunday night but officials held out hope that reasonable service would be restored today.

New York City, its 6,000 miles of streets nearly strangled with almost a foot and a half of snow, was still closed to all but emergency travel late Sunday.

The city's two major airports, Idlewild and La Guardia resumed operations Sunday night after being closed since Friday, forcing cancellation of some 2,600 flights.

The four major railroads operating out of the city hoped to be back on schedule after a day of operation without the semblance of a timetable.

In Rhode Island, officials called the storm the worst in at least 57 years.

Among the hardest hit communities was Cortland, N.Y., which measured 40 inches of snow, the heaviest in the city's history. Boston had 14.4 inches but the northern areas of New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine escaped the full fury as the storm moved out to sea.

The storm came on the heels of 16 consecutive days of sub-freezing temperatures but the mercury was expected to climb in the sunny 30s today.

The storm moving northeastward out of the south central portion of the country was expected to spread sleet or snow from eastern Oklahoma, Kansas and northeast Texas across southern Arkansas and into the Ohio Valley and Tennessee.

Castro Grabs Water Supplier

New Needle Is Out Against Catholics

HAVANA (AP)—The Cuban water company supplying the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay since 1939 has been taken over by Fidel Castro's government. So far, however, there has been no interruption in the base's water supply.

The naval base made arrangements some time ago to get an adequate water supply by tankers if necessary. But one of the new government administrators for the Yateras Aqueduct Co., Antonio Batista, said operations would continue as before.

The Yateras Company, located on a river of the same name a few miles northwest of Guantanamo, first contracted to supply the base in 1939. The original 20-year contract is understood to have been renewed for a 10-year period running to 1969.

The company, founded by Henri Schueg, built an aqueduct and pumping station to send water to the base. The Navy expanded them in 1941 and 1942.

The government said it took over the company because the owners abandoned the property.

Weekend addresses by two top Castro aides revealed an intensified campaign to link the Roman Catholic Church here and the new Kennedy administration in Washington with Cuban counterrevolutionaries.

Remarks at a teachers' rally Sunday by President Osvaldo Dorticos and Education Minister Armando Hart also suggested a long-anticipated government move against private and Catholic schools is imminent.

Dorticos accused the church and its schools of teaching hatred for Castro's revolution. He said growing anti-Castro activity within the church coincides with President Kennedy's increase of aid to Cuban refugees in Florida.

Hart told the rally the government will not allow public schools to create one type of man while the private schools create another type. He accused Catholic schools — 265 among the island's approximately 1,000 private schools — of inculcating "absurd ideas" that poison and intoxicate students.

Dr. Hedges Sees More Government In Medicine

Dr. Jasper M. Hedges, 339 Wood Lane, yesterday told a group of fledgling physicians that there will be increased government participation in medicine.

He told a group of University of Cincinnati medical students that "government programs indicate a trend of socialization which medicine cannot escape."

He said the future does not include complete socialization of medicine, however, and said doctors-to-be can meet problems and plan their lives if they "cultivate a humble mind, an open heart and a discerning conscience."

Dr. Hedges was a member of a panel of doctors representing the Ohio State Medical Assn. which spoke to the UC students regarding the advantages of practicing in a small community.

$150,000 Fine Handed Six Electric Firms

Westinghouse, GE Charged with Fixing Price of Equipment

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Six large electrical companies, General Electric and Westinghouse among them, were fined a total of $150,000 today on the first of 20 federal indictments charging bid rigging and price fixing in violation of antitrust laws.

J. H. Chiles, Pittsburgh, a Westinghouse vice president, and W. S. Ginn, Schenectady, N.Y., a General Electric vice president, each were given 30-day jail terms, one of the few times defendants were sentenced to jail in any antitrust case. Chiles also was fined $2,000; Ginn $5,000.

On the first count, individual defendants drawing fines included: R. N. McCollon, head of the Westinghouse power transformer division at Pittsburgh, $2,500 (30-day jail term suspended but he was placed on five-year probation).

J. W. McMullen, Allis-Chalmers vice president, $3,000 (30-day jail term suspended but placed on five-year probation).

Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganey described the case involving 29 of the nation's biggest electrical firms as "a shocking indictment of a vast segment of our economy." He said the defendants "mocked the image" of the nation's free enterprise system.

General Electric and Westinghouse each received $40,000 fines on the first count, involving the sale of power transformer equipment. On the same count, Judge Ganey fined Allis-Chalmers $25,000 McGraw-Edison $20,000; Mo-nroe Electric Co., $15,000 and Wagner Electric $10,000.

In his pre-sentencing remarks, Judge Ganey said those who guided the companies "bear a grave responsibility for what has happened. Accordingly heavy fines will be imposed on the companies."

There was a total of 72 pleas of guilty and 89 of nolo contendere (no defense) to 20 indictments for fixing prices and rigging bids at secret meetings all over the United States.

The nation's biggest electrical makers—Westinghouse and General Electric—were named in 19 indictments each. Westinghouse pleaded guilty to seven; GE guilty to six; nolo in the rest.

Of the defendants, 57 were up for sentencing today. They included 21 corporations.

Corporations are liable to a maximum $50,000 fine on each indictment. Individuals, besides the $50,000 fine, can be sent to prison for a year.

Tighter Customs Program Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today asked Congress to cut sharply the amount of foreign goods which American tourists can bring back to the United States without paying customs duties.

Kennedy proposed that the present $500 maximum be slashed to $100 in order to discourage tourists from buying costly souvenirs with dollars which foreigners could use to purchase American goods.

This was the most dramatic recommendation made by Kennedy in a 4,500-word special message on the gold problem which Kennedy said "justifies concern but not panic or alarm."

While the President had been expected to make a request of this sort, some were surprised by the extent of the proposed cut in the customs exemption.

The move was certain to cause concern in some countries, particularly Canada which entertains many American tourists than any other nation but which normally doesn't buy U.S. gold.

Most other major proposals represented attempts to place new emphasis on policies adopted earlier by the Eisenhower administration. For example, Kennedy promised new efforts to expand exports, attract foreign tourists, limit military spending abroad and channel foreign-aid dollars to American businessmen.

One new idea: that Congress permit banks to pay foreign governments and central banks a higher rate of interest than Americans receive on savings accounts. The maximum rate now is three per cent.

Kennedy said action along this line "would enable American banks to make a maximum competitive effort to attract and hold dollar balances which might otherwise be converted into gold."

The effect could be significant since the foreign deposits involved total about $3 billion.

Kennedy also said the United States will seek an international review of the free world's monetary system, with the aim of ironing out some kinks. He hinted at possible tax law changes later to discourage some kinds of private American investment in Europe.

Kennedy said there is time to deal with the gold drain "calmly and deliberately" and declared it (Continued on Page 10)

Mardi Gras Gets Off to Roaring Start

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—"Hey, mister, throw me something."

With that cry echoing through city streets, New Orleans' madcap Mardi Gras season got off to a roaring start over the weekend.

Before the bells of St. Louis Cathedral toll out the close of Carnival at midnight Feb. 14, 25 parades with gaily decorated floats will roll through city streets. Almost as many gala masked balls will be held.

The five parades over the weekend were without incident as people frolicked along the parade route and youngsters and the young-at-heart clamored for throws from the lavishly costumed figures on floats.

President Kennedy's youngest brother, Edward (Ted) Kennedy, helped give the pre-Lenten hijinks a rousing sendoff.

The younger Kennedy and his wife reviewed parades Sunday and later presented to the king and queen at the annual masked ball of the Krewe of Carrollton.

The usual "no vacancy" signs are missing from city hotels however. Larry Chopin, president of the New Orleans Hotel Association, said advance reservations are "slower than ever." He expects a last minute rush.

He attributed the falloff to the New Orleans integration crisis and recent bad weather throughout the nation.

Fronzizi Candidate Defeated in Brazil

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Buenos Aires voters have defeated President Arturo Fronzizi's senatorial candidate, favoring men from two other parties and killing Fronzizi's hopes for a prestige showing.

The president's great majority in Congress remains unaffected, but Fronzizi had hoped that victory for his choice in Buenos Aires election would be a sign the people accept the government's austerity policies.

Cycling Professor, Bicycle Hauled Away in Paddy Wagon

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—For 27 years, in blizzard and heat, the professor pedaled serenely from home to campus — a dignified familiar figure along the 2¼-mile route.

Sometimes during the noon break in classes at Northwestern University he would hustle off on his lightweight bicycle to tend to family errands in the suburb's busy shopping district.

It was all very cozy and routine. Then the law stepped in. Overnight Professor Malcolm Dole and his bicycle became a cause celebre.

On three separate occasions, Professor Dole was confronted at an intersection of Sheridan Road by a young police officer.

The last time they met, on Jan. 20 it went badly for Professor Dole, a silver-haired member of the chemistry department faculty.

"This young officer radioed into the station for a paddy wagon," he related. "When they brought it around, they loaded the bicycle inside, and then me."

"Over at the station they placed me under guard in the squad room."

In short order, the professor was ticketed for a traffic violation — for having driven down streets zoned exclusively for motor vehicles. He was ordered to appear at a hearing today in Evanston municipal court.

Resentful over what he considered high-handed treatment, the professor decided to fight the case.

"They treated me," he recalled, "like a child—even though I'm 57 years old and have been driving my bicycle to and from campus for 27 years."

Friends and champions of bicycle riding rushed to his defense.

"When I went to church the other day, they called me a hero," Dole told a reporter.

A group from the astronomy department sent a representative to talk to me. He said they wanted to give me $3 toward my legal defense because I was fighting their fight."

Somewhat dismayed at the attention his case has received, the professor nevertheless insists on seeing it through. "My objection," he said, "is that the zoning ordinance places undue restrictions on a minority."

posed the total would be $8.05 million.

The government charged the conspiracy stifled competition in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act of 1890. All the defendants vigorously denied this at first, then later switched their innocent pleas as the government pressed for trial.

Following the sentencing, the net legal step, if any, could be civil lawsuits by governmental and private industry customers to recover damages for alleged overpayments for equipment used to generate, transmit and distribute electricity to almost every home in America.

Besides GE and Westinghouse the following firms entered one or more guilty pleas:

I-T-E Circuit Breaker Co., Philadelphia; Allis-Chalmers, West Allis, Wis.; Federal Pacific Electric Co., Newark, N.J.; Clark Controller Co., Cleveland; Cutler-Hammer Inc., Milwaukee; Square D, Detroit; Ingersoll-Rand, Easton, Pa.; Foster Wheeler Corp., New York; C. Booster Sale Is Completed

The Circleville Booster Club netted about $120 in its White Elephant sale conducted here Saturday.

Booster president Ralph Starkley said the sale was held Saturday morning and again Saturday night. He said the club was pleased with the results of the first sale of this type.

President Starkley today expressed thanks to CHS Coaches Carl Benhase, Richard Fisher, James Lint, John Adler and to members of the basketball, wrestling and junior high teams which helped. He also commended Booster directors Charles Hart, David Crawford and John Jenkins.

Additional valuable help was given by Eschelman's Mill, Mac's Goodyear, Forest Moore and the high school. All provided trucks for pickups.

Also receiving thanks were the many local persons who donated merchandise, auctioneers Curtis Hix and Leslie Hines and Sgt. Chester Iery of the local National Guard Armory where the sale was held.

All proceeds will be used for the benefit of athletics at Circleville High School. Starkley said the sale probably will become an annual Booster Club event.

Stock Mart Trade Active, Prices Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .50 at 236.00 with industrials down 1.30, rails down .40 and utilities up .20.

Losses of most key stocks went from fractions to a point or so. A number of pivotal and specially situated issues bucked the down trend.

Turnover was considerably below the pace last week.

The tone was generally lower for steels, autos, rails, rubbers, nonferrous metals, chemicals, and electrical equipments.

The market was vulnerable due to its advance which put some averages at historic highs last week.

General Electric and Westinghouse Electric both lost more than a point as sentences were imposed for illegal price fixing and bid rigging in the big antitrust case against many electric equipment firms.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 5.11 at 647.86. Corporate and U.S. government bonds were steady.

5-Year Foreign Aid Plan Eyed

Other Nations' Help Sought by Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy may ask Congress soon to authorize a five-year foreign aid program aimed at inducing other free nations to share more of the burden, Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said today.

Mansfield, the Senate's Democratic leader, said he expects Kennedy to reshape the entire program. He will be surprised, if the senator said in an interview, if Kennedy increases the $4-billion budget request of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in this field.

Mansfield said that as he understands it, the long-range program would be based primarily on development loans and technical assistance for countries which recently have gained their independence. He said he expects a cutback in military aid.

"Under this program there would be more sharing of the burden by the Western European nations and by Japan," Mansfield said. "These countries are amply able now to contribute to the development of their less fortunate world neighbors."

The State Department reported six months ago that the United States and 14 other industrialized countries of the free world had poured $18 billion worth of economic aid into underdeveloped nations during the previous six years. The American total was over $12 billion.

The Democratic leader said he is convinced that only by long-range planning can other free nations be attracted to join in the program. He said these nations want to know what is going to be done and how much it will cost before they come in.

"If we plan further ahead than we have been doing, I think the net effect will be that we will be able to reduce appropriations in this field," he said.

U.S. Woman Sings As Ship Sinks

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—An American woman stood on the deck of a sinking ship in Tokyo bay Sunday night and sang "The Lord's Prayer" to calm the excited survivors.

The singer was Mrs. Victor Andrews of Laguna Beach, Calif., a passenger on the 6,419-ton Danish freighter Laust Maersk. The ship sank after colliding with the 6,419-ton American cargo ship Alcoa Pioneer.

The Japanese Coast Guard said one Danish crewman died in the crash and three others were missing. Forty-three persons — including Mrs. Andrews and three other American passengers — were rescued.

The American ship docked under her own power, her bow ripped and tangled. The Laust Maersk went down in about 20 minutes.

About 3,000 dentists are trained in the United States each year.

The damages suit arose from an auto accident Nov. 19, 1958 on Route 62, Pickaway County.

Fitzgerald was traveling northeast on Route 62 behind a tractor and corn picker. He alleges that the Jackson auto, traveling southwest on Route 62, struck the left side of the tractor and the left side of his auto causing him to be thrown out of his auto onto the berm of the road.

The plaintiff further alleges that he has suffered the following injuries as a direct result of the accident:

A broken nose; lacerations on the head; bruises on both legs, chest and left shoulder; and was left in a state of shock; has permanent impairments to his breathing facilities; has lost 14

Liner's Menu Tips Trouble Aboard Ship Held by Pirates

RECIFE, Brazil (AP) — Mrs. Carl Greiner, formerly of Springfield, Ohio, knew something was wrong.

The waiters failed to serve orange juice and marmalade to the first class passengers.

Mrs. Greiner and her husband, now of Ormond Beach, Fla., were passengers aboard the Santa Maria, the Portuguese liner returning from a pleasure trip to Lisbon.

Also aboard were another former Ohio couple, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Churchill, who lived in Lima, now of Asheville, N.C.

Churchill didn't enjoy his breakfast either. There were men all around carrying revolvers, and one posted at the door was armed with a machinegun.

What was wrong, of course, was that the liner had been hijacked by a small group of Portuguese expatriates. The Greiners and the Churchills told of their experience after they were freed, along with some 600 other passengers in Recife last week.

Churchill couldn't believe, he said that a relatively small number of men were holding as prisoners nearly 1,000 men, women and children, including the crew members.

After her first suspicions, Mrs. Greiner became accustomed to being under guard. She said that nobody was mistreated, and that rebel skipper Henrique Galvao tried to keep life as normal as possible for the first class passengers.

In the last few days while they were virtual prisoners, however, uneasiness increased, particularly among passengers in the third-class, who were ill-fed.

Churchill said those in his class were living on beans and potatoes toward the end of the trip.

Churchill admitted after being landed safely that most of his fears aboard the liner—that the women might be attacked, or the men robbed—were groundless.

But he has definite uncompromising opinions about the rebel leader, Galvao.

Mrs. Greiner summed up: "It's great to be free."

She and her husband are staying with an American family pending arrangements to fly back to Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

West Germany Is Magnet For American Investors

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — West Germany is a growing magnet for American business and—unless the Kennedy administration restricts them—U.S. firms are expected to open more and more subsidiary operations here in 1961.

One new U.S. firm has put down roots here every three weeks during the past two years, according to the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany.

"If the recession at home gets tougher," said influential American businessmen here, "there's only one thing many American companies can do to save their necks—get to Germany as fast as possible and into a market that's really expanding."

Whether the Kennedy administration will allow this trend to go on is the big question, and the recent flood of American capital to Europe probably will be held back for some months until Washington makes up its mind.

The establishment of operations in Europe by big American companies has been partly responsible for the drain on U.S. gold reserves.

The scope of this drain is indicated by Germany's giant Mannesmann Holding Corporation which reports that in 1960, one half of all private U.S. investments made abroad were made in Europe and that Americans contributed 30 per cent of the total capital invested by foreigners in the common market area.

From 1955-59, 33.6 per cent of the $8.3 billion invested by Americans in the common market went to West Germany where they employed about half a million German workers at wages averaging 50 cents an hour.

So far the United States has acquired a third of all foreign-owned company share capital in Germany, and is the chief foreign shareholder in the Federal Republic, followed by Britain and the Netherlands.

In the past few years, 20 per cent of the annual American investments in Germany came from direct transfers from the United States, about 25 per cent from U.S. funds raised abroad, and 55 per cent from income earned in Germany and reinvested, officials of the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany report.

Columbus East Side Hit by Power Failure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 40-minute power blackout on the city's east end Sunday resulted from an explosion in an electric company substation that caused an estimated $35,000 damage, the Fire Department reported.

No one was hurt when the explosion lifted the concrete roof off the one-story brick substation on the far East Side, fire officials said. They said the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. station was empty when gas fumes from an overheated transformer ignited from a spark of unknown origin.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

High pressure moved over Ohio Sunday afternoon, ending the snow flurries, and skies cleared over most sections. The sunshine resulted in a relatively pleasant afternoon, with temperatures near the 30-degree mark.

Skies clouded up again over the western section during the night, with clear skies prevailing over the eastern counties.

Early morning temperatures today ranged from 15 in Canton and Marietta to 22 at Cincinnati. Columbus had 20, Cleveland 16.

Southwesterly winds are feeding moisture from the Gulf of Mexico northward toward Ohio, and the forecast calls for cloudy weather to prevail over the state for the next 24 hours. As the moisture increases light snow is indicated for southern sections tonight, spreading into the north portion Tuesday.

Little temperature change is anticipated over the next 24 hours.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average near normal to 3 degrees above. Normal high 35, low 19. Only slight day-to-day changes in temperature until cold end of week. Precipitation will average one-quarter inch or less, as occasional snow Tuesday and again about end of week.

Friday Error

CARNEY, Md. (AP) — As the bus packed with schoolchildren pulled up to a rural restaurant, the cook put 60 patties of ground beef on the grill — so the hamburgers would be ready to serve when the boys and girls placed their orders.

Then somebody remembered it was Friday. Then somebody else learned the youngsters were from a Roman Catholic school.

Then — as the ground beef sizzled — the orders came in. Tuna sandwiches mostly. Hamburgers? Not a single one.

Enrollment at Ohio's six state-assisted universities in the fall of the current (1960-61) year totaled 70,054 students, of whom nearly 14,000 were enrolled in branch campuses throughout the state.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two K's—President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev—have some things in common besides debating Richard M. Nixon.

Neither is a stuffed shirt. Both, to some extent, are unpredictable and give their bodyguards the creeps.

They're blunt, have humor, believe in action, and show an interest in individuals.

Khrushchev almost has turned patting babies into a hobby. His antics scared his bodyguards when he was at the United Nations in New York.

He would scoot away, button-hole strangers, pop up in shirt-sleeves on his hotel balcony in full sight of any crackpot with a gun. U.S. Secret Service men, used to protecting the fairly predictable former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, have their hands full with Kennedy.

He gave them fits at the inaugural ball by jumping boxes to shake hands with friends.

At 2 a.m. he dashed off to a party in a friend's house in Georgetown.

Last week, after a snowstorm, he left the White House for a local theater to see a movie which ended at midnight.

Kennedy, like Khrushchev, is a shirtsleeves man.

Reporters who were with him during and after the campaign still recall his sitting down with them, coat off, smoking a cigar, chewing the fat for hours.

A week ago he wandered into the White House office of his press secretary, Pierre Salinger, found a newsman there, sat down and talked with him for 15 minutes.

Kennedy has always been informal. Even on his inauguration day he did the unexpected a few minutes before going to the Capitol.

He took a plaque across the street to the home of a woman neighbor as a token of thanks for her kindness in giving hot coffee to newsmen who had been standing for days in freezing cold outside his house.

The day after his election he began arrangements to have his own physician, Dr. Janet G. Travell, treat a newsman who had covered his campaign with an acutely painful, ailing back.

Kennedy later appointed her White House physician, the first woman in history in that job.

Stolid Stalin sat in the Kremlin. Khrushchev, a man of action, bounces around the world, makes speeches, gives interviews, and has turned Russian foreign policy into new, imaginative, and aggressive channels.

Kennedy promised action which began as soon as he entered the White House and shows no signs of letting up.

Both men debated Nixon when he was vice president. Khrushchev in Moscow, Kennedy on TV in the presidential campaign.

The Russian likes bluntness, as he showed when he demolished the 1960 summit conference and ridiculed Eisenhower.

Kennedy also is blunt — as he said, by preference in repeatedly picturing the American economy in bleak and somber color.

Khrushchev has humor. He's a bit of a ham.

Kennedy's humor pops through also. The night after his inauguration at a private dinner he defended his appointment of his brother, Robert, 34, as attorney general by saying it gave his brother a chance to get some legal experience before he started to practice law.

Construction Contracts In Ohio Show Decline

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The F. W. Dodge Corp. has announced that construction contracts in Ohio during the past fall fell 6 per cent behind the 1959 dollar volume. Carl S. Bennett, regional vice president of the construction news and marketing firm, said contracts totaled $1,924,363,000 for 1960.

Total breakdown of all contracts included nonresidential at $655,501,000, down 3 per cent; residential at $894,048,000, down 15 per cent, and heavy engineering at $374,814,000, up 19 per cent.

BALLET TO THIS — Gloria Mestre, one-time prima ballerina of the Mexican State Ballet Company, appears as a belly dancer (above) in a movie, "Foxhole in Cairo," which she is making in London. Gloria went to Paris to learn her new art.

Lawyers See No 'Piracy' In Ship Grab

NEW YORK (AP)—The seizure of the Portuguese cruise ship Santa Maria by political foes of the Portuguese government was hardly an act of piracy, experts on the laws of the sea agreed today.

They said no one had suggested the rebels had seized the ship for private gain. And the key words relating to piracy in the Geneva convention of 1958 are "for private ends."

However, one legal source said a piracy charge might be made legally by any country that seized the ship from the rebels.

In such a case, the defendants would have to prove they "were honestly revolting against the Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar regime," said Arthur H. Dean, who headed the U. S. delegation to the Geneva convention on the law of the sea.

All other aspects of the law relating to the Santa Maria were regarded as too "delicate" or "confused" for a firm view. Included was the question of whom the 600 passengers might sue over their ruined vacations.

Sea law experts said if Portugal were to capture the insurgents it would make little practical difference whether she tried them as pirates or for treason.

"Their goose would be cooked either way," said one lawyer. "To beat the piracy rap they'd have to prove they were rebels against Salazar and then they'd be shot anyway."

CINCINNATI (AP)—Avco Corp. today announced appointment of Louis E. Hart to a newly created job as manager of production engineering for its electronics and ordnance division.

Hamilton Tipped For A-Reactor

Electric Generator Setup Is Possible

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Hamilton is one of several cities being considered by the Atomic Energy Commission for the site of an experimental $19 million nuclear plant for production of power to generate electricity.

City Manager Aaron Marsh confirmed that the AEC is considering Hamilton and said the city has submitted an expression of interest in the project.

City officials said the AEC wants to build the plant, which would include a 50,000 kilowatt organic cooled reactor power plant, at a city which operates its own electric system.

Under the tentative plan, the AEC plant would provide the steam for use by the municipal electric plant in generating electricity. After an experimental period of not less than 5 years and not more than 10 the city would be allowed to buy the plant.

Marsh and City Public Utilities Director Early Brush said the site proposed for the plant, if it is located here, would be near the present AEC plant at Fernald which is just over the line in Hamilton County. That plant is operated by the National Lead Co., of Ohio.

Marsh said such a new plant would have to be located in a minimum of six miles from the nearest edge of any population area of 100,000 or more.

A site near the Fernald plant would fit that requirement.

Marsh said the AEC proposes the plant be in operation by 1964 and he said he understood several other cities have been asked if they would be interested in having such a project.

"We shall await with great interest the terms offered by the AEC," Marsh said.

East Germany Claims Hike In Production

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany today claimed an 8.3 per cent increase in industrial production in 1960, but admitted difficulties in housing, farm production and railway transport.

The report of the Central State Statistical Control Office did not say so, but any progress in production was made more impressive by the fact that it was done with a declining population, nearly 200,000 East Germans — more than 1 per cent of the population — fled to the West last year.

Western experts are wary of Communist statistics, especially after recent admissions that figures were doctored in the Soviet Union and Red China. They were inclined to believe, however, that the Germans are in fact producing more these days—on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

They were quick to point out that by the Communists' own figures, the production increase was greater—14.5 per cent—in those enterprises only partly owned by the Communist state.

The report occupied a full page today in the official Communist daily Neues Deutschland. It emphasized such figures as an 8.2 per cent increase in workers' productivity, an 11 per cent increase in building, and a 9 per cent increase in investments. As is usual in such reports, there were no figures upon which to apply the percentages.

Cities Warned To Check 'Theft' of Industries

CINCINNATI (AP)—L. T. White of New York, a vice president of Cities Service Co., says he thinks American cities should keep a sharp eye on their industry because the attempts of other cities to steal companies away can be called "the great payroll robbery of the 60s." He told an Xavier University business conference Friday night that a community business institute could be set up to aid business impartially, much like red feather agencies help private citizens in trouble.

Bowling Green Opens New $1.3 Million Hall

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—Bowling Green State University today officially opens its $1,350,000 Memorial Hall. The building's lecture halls, classrooms, laboratories and physical education facilities will help relieve the university's shortage of space brought on by increasing student admissions.

Memorial hall also has a sports arena which can seat 6,000 persons. The structure was built as a memorial to Bowling Green students and alumni who gave their lives while serving in the Armed Forces.

Among Ohio State University engineering graduates are 283 company presidents, board chairmen and owners of businesses, as well as 329 vice presidents, senior partners and general managers.

Business Studies Proposals To Spur Nation's Economy

New York (AP)—The business world this week studied President Kennedy's "new frontier" proposals to spur the lagging economy, and wondered what is over the horizon.

Some of the President's program came in direct orders which will have quick effect. Other parts will depend upon congressional action.

Kennedy told Congress that the economy is in a short-term recession and long-term slack.

He urged increased Social Security payments, emergency unemployment benefits, an increase in the minimum wage, easier housing credit, lower long-term interest rates and swifter federal and local government spending.

Some business leaders felt that the economy already was priming to lift itself by its bootstraps from the mire in which it is struggling. They believed this might come before Congress acts on some of the presidential proposals.

Nevertheless, the Kennedy program was generally viewed as providing vital prospective stimulating shots in the economic arm.

The stock market gave every indication of approval for the government help. It racked up some sharp gains in a bullish atmosphere amid very heavy trading.

The aircraft-missile stocks took the lead in the advance on the word that the administration would step up defense spending, including a big increase in the fleet of military jet transport planes.

Brokers interpreted the market's steady gain through January as indication that it is anticipating the start of a business recovery about mid-year.

However, business at the present remained in the doldrums.

Layoffs, low production and slow sales plagued the automobile industry. Steel output declined and, despite a pickup in some types of orders, there was little anticipation of marked improvement for another month.

Auto production totaled an estimated 102,000 this week, up 6.9 per cent from last week but down 37.4 per cent from a year ago. January production amounted to 414,752 cars, compared with 522,718 in December and 688,991 in January 1960. The February schedule is for 430,000 cars, a cut of 40,000 from original plans.

Ford and Chrysler closed six assembly plants and car lines at two others for this week, idling 15,000. American Motors will shut down operations at Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., next week because of "a general decline in the automobile industry." General Motors planned to lay off 45,000 men for a week starting Feb. 13.

The cutback in car production upset the steel industry's hopes noon and playing games with him were David and Jeffrey Frances, Tommy and Neil Coey, Michelle Immell, and Cheryl Greeno.

Mrs. Charles Immell assisted in serving the refreshments. Favors were plastic bubbles and yoyos.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Routt who moved to Orlando, Fla., have returned to Kingston for a couple of weeks to take care of some business here.

The "Golden Circle" of the Ladies Guild of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Jones, Wednesday evening, with nine members present. The group leader, Mrs. Norman Godden, led the discussion on the book of John, which will be the study taken up by the circle.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Umsted who has been hospitalized with a severe back condition, has improved so that she was able to take up her work this week. She is a teacher in the Logan Elm High School.

Ohio Sportsmen Tap Cleveland as Chief

A list of resolutions by the National Wildlife Foundation was unanimously approved at the closing session. Heading the list was a request that all states bordering on the Great Lakes and the Ohio River take immediate steps to end the pollution of water. Kenneth E. Crawford of Columbus was elected vice president, P. M. Jones of Ravenna, secretary, and Ben R. Drayer of Columbus, treasurer.

TV Education Network Cost Eyed by State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — To buy or not to buy, that is the question.

The state wants to set up an educational television network. Should it buy equipment outright or lease it? Which would be cheaper?

That was the problem facing an Interim Educational Television Study Commission at a public hearing Friday.

C. J. Copeland, an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. sales manager, told the hearing that his firm could lease the equipment at rates competitive with outright state ownership.

But Ohio Highway Patrol Capt. Martin G. Hegele countered that if the equipment were leased, telephone company rates could go up at any time, thus disrupting a budget.

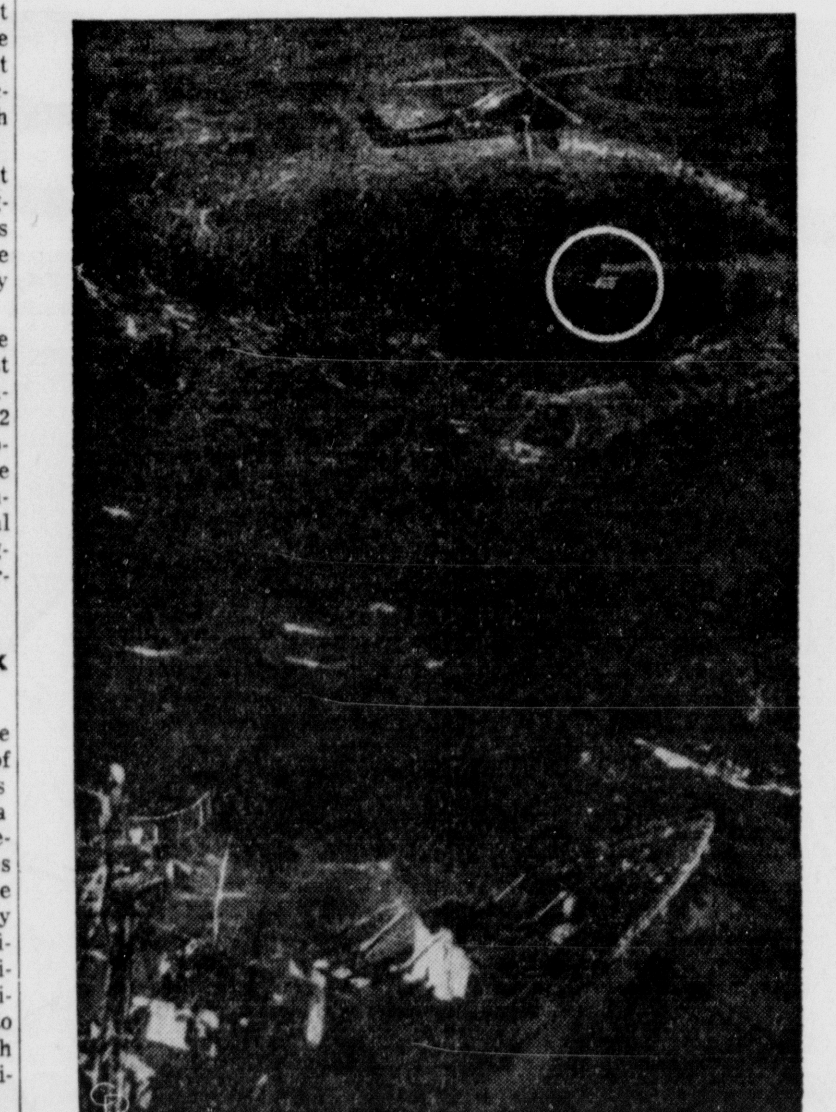

Hegele recommended that the equipment be purchased and then "you know what it will cost."

A Washington, D. C., communications engineering firm, Jansky & Bailey, Inc., said an 11-studio, 9-transmitter network could be constructed. The network would operate on ultra-high frequency, meaning TV set owners would have to purchase UHF converters to view the programs.

This type of telecasting is already being done by Ohio State University, Miami University, the Greater Toledo Education Television Foundation and in Cincinnati.

Engineers estimated that equipment costs for all phases, with allowances for existing equipment, would be about $6,458,000.

The Graduate School at Ohio State University ranks eighth in the nation in the number of Ph.D. degrees earned each year.

Chairman Roger Blough of United States Steel Corp. made a cautious statement that he would be surprised if output for the second quarter failed to exceed the depressed first quarter.

He conceded that the economy is in a lull but said "there is no reason for pressing the panic button."

A severe cold wave compounded the economic troubles. It kept customers away from the stores and retail trade dropped four to eight per cent below a year ago.

Freight car loadings declined 2.8 per cent from the previous week and 21.3 per cent from a year ago. On the brighter side, there chains, snow tires, batteries,

Why Housewives Volunteer Their Services to Charity

Plan a mass meeting of all the women volunteers in the United States and you'd have to rent several hundred football stadiums.

You'd find enough talent, too, to run a king-size corporation — and still have ability left over. You can find women who fill every post from switchboard operator to chairman of the board.

Women talk, walk, plan, collect, create, cook, implore, phone, write, enlist, solicit for hundreds of causes that couldn't exist without their efforts.

Is volunteering a satisfying way of life for the bazaar chairman, the door bell ringer, the hospital worker, the poster designer, the ticket seller?

For some it's therapy, for others creativity, or the feeling of being needed. But for a much smaller number it's a seemingly endless round of frenzied and inconclusive activity.

Women workers point out what they like about volunteer work:

There is flexibility. "If the children have mumps, I don't feel guilty about canceling. I couldn't do that with a paid job," explains one woman.

Others like the freedom of choice which I wouldn't get if I worked for a pay check. I can select the agencies in which I'm most interested.

They like to feel their voluntary activities are not conflicting with their husbands' careers. "If I'd kept on with my work as a fashion designer, I know my husband would have subconsciously resented my success. He has to be top dog to be happy."

Sometimes women who have never held jobs discover hidden abilities. These are the superb home managers who become volunteer chairmen, organizers and planners; the born clubwomen.

Other women given to self-servingly volunteer only where they can use their talents. "I'm a former social worker, I'd rather volunteer in the environment where I belong — than do odd jobs my untrained woman can do."

Perhaps the strongest sense of satisfaction comes to women who have a binding emotional tie with the agency for which they work. A mother whose child is retarded throws herself heart and soul into the cause of retarded children, and will work tirelessly for their help.

But what about the worker who feels herself on a treadmill?

One woman, for example, is on the board of the Woman's Club, which means she attends two meetings a month; she models, prepares a dessert and arranges for delivery of 100 card tables for the annual fashion show; drags her protesting husband to three covered dish suppers annually; attends meetings for explorations into the needs of the community's senior citizens; performs liaison with county and state clubs.

She is also a member of the volunteer committee for mental health for which she spends an hour a day at the telephone trying to recruit volunteers for work at the state hospital.

She is on the speakers' bureau of an anti-highway organization, although she hates to make speeches; makes door-to-door forays to raise money for it keeps a clipping scrapbook for the group.

She is room mother for her daughter's class, works with the Junior Museum helping set up exhibits. When the local hospital has a fair to finance a new wing, she makes five pounds of potato salad and four quarts of chili.

How did this ball of activity ever get rolling?

"I guess I'm a victim of the soft sell," she says. "Everybody tells you the job means no work at all — which is a laugh."

"My other gripe is about meetings, meetings, meetings. Calling a meeting to be the chairman's solution for anything, no matter how trivial. People get way off the point, get very emotional, and hours go by and nothing has been settled."

To such harried do-gooders, women who are able to keep their volunteer work within reasonable bounds have advice.

"Walk with caution before saying yes," says one lady of experience. "I try to find out exactly what the work entails — meetings how often how long, and what for. Telephoning, the same. How much help I can count on if it's a big planning job. Most of all, do I feel this organization is necessary? It is doing a job? Or does it seem like made work?"

Indiana Poised To Battle with Undeclared OSU

Hurryin' Hoosiers Hold Hope of Ending Rush by Buckeyes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Indiana's hurryin' Hoosiers, last team to beat Ohio State, get another chance at the breezin' Buckeyes tonight in the first game of a home-and-home series with the defending NCAA champions and college basketball's No. 1 team.

The Bucks play the Hoosiers at Columbus, Ohio, seeking their seventh straight Big Ten victory, and, over-all, their 21st consecutive triumph since Indiana's 99-83 decision at home on Feb. 29, 1960.

Tonight's game, and the rematch at Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 20, should determine whether All-America Jerry Lucas and his capable Ohio State Co. will nail another Big Ten title and a chance at another NCAA championship.

Ohio State is 6-0 in the conference and 16-0 this season after crushing Michigan 80-58 in a minor road test Saturday. Indiana is 3-1 in the Big Ten and 10-4 over-all after riding big Walt Bellamy's 34 points and all-around play to a 90-78 victory over Northwestern.

The Big Ten showdown triggers another big week on the college courts, heading a schedule packed with important tests for the conference and independent teams alike in their push for places in the two March tournaments—the NCAA and the National Invitation.

The tournaments are wide open with a month of heavy play remaining and only one team definite—second-ranked St. Bonaventure, which has accepted an at-large invitation to the NCAA in hopes of another crack at Ohio State, its only conqueror in 17 games this season.

The Bonnies, sky-high after beating third-ranked Bradley last week, play at home tonight against Tennessee State, the top-ranked small college team, then meet Boston College at Buffalo on Saturday.

Bradley, still leading the Missouri Valley Conference despite a loss to surging Cincinnati last week, plays conference foe Drake at Peoria tonight.

Mississippi State, unbeaten in the Southeastern Conference, entertains Tulane, and Kansas needs only to beat Colorado to pull into a tie with Kansas State in the Big Eight.

The scrambled lead in the Middle Atlantic Conference race is up for grabs in a Philadelphia Palestra doubleheader that matches Temple with Muhlenberg and LaSalle with St. Joseph's in games put back 48 hours by the Eastern snowstorm.

In two independent matches tonight, Detroit (12-6) is at Xavier of Ohio (11-5), and Richmond at Memphis State (15-2).

Ohio State hit 66 per cent in the first half, then let reserves get a workout against Michigan last Saturday. Duke, getting 36 points from soph Art Heyman, snapped North Carolina's 12-game streak, 81-77, Cincinnati's streak went to 11 in a 77-60 rout of sixth-ranked Iowa. Mississippi State won its eighth straight, 77-61 over LSU, and Oregon's seventh in a row was 71-58 over Oregon State.

Several big streaks were ended, besides North Carolina's. Southern California's ended at eight, 86-83 to UCLA; Florida's at seven, 89-68 to Kentucky; Memphis State's at six (and 32 at home), 96-77 to Dayton; and Army's at nine, 86-72 to Boston College.

To be eligible for all-star games and special awards, players in the American Hockey League must participate in at least 60 per cent of their team's league games.

Bucks Head For Perfect Big 10 Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If somebody doesn't "beat them Bucks" pretty soon, Ohio State could become the first basketball team to go through the Big Ten without defeat since Illinois' Whiz Kids of 1943.

Ohio State is also seeking to become the first Big Ten team in 43 years to go through an entire season undefeated.

Not since the 1918 Minnesota team has a Big Ten school had a perfect season in basketball. The 1918 Gophers had a 10-0 conference record and were 13-0 for all games.

If Ohio State handles Indiana tonight, the Buckeyes face a major hurdle two weeks from now. On Feb. 18 they play at Iowa (4-1) and two nights later will be at Indiana.

However, Ohio's expected run-away of the conference title could materialize this week. If Ohio State defeats Indiana tonight and Michigan State Saturday and Indiana defeats Iowa Saturday, by the end of the week OSU could have an 8-0 record with Indiana and Iowa tied for second with 4-2 marks.

Then it would be no longer a matter of who will win the title but whether Ohio State can remain undefeated.

Aside from OSU's 80-58 whipping of Michigan and Indiana's 90-78 win over Northwestern Saturday, Illinois pulled an upset at Minnesota, 65-60, to break a three-game Gopher winning streak; and Terry Dischinger scored 30 points in leading Purdue to a 69-58 triumph over Wisconsin.

Butch Lutz with a 508 series and Tom Stocklen a 443 came through for top scores in Junior League bowling here.

Stocklen had a high 190 game and Lutz had a 180, 168 and 160.

Vacuum Gets Bird

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Richard Soliday, 12, was giving his bird cage an extra good cleaning with a vacuum sweeper when—swoosh, Tweedy Pie, the parakeet, disappeared.

Quick action with a knife freed Tweedy Pie from the sweeper bag. He emerged unhurt in a cloud of dust, minus tail feathers.

Three Andersons are on big league rosters. They are Bob Anderson, Cub pitcher; Harry Anderson, Red first baseman-outfielder and Norm Anderson of the Cardinals.

Texans Pocket California Gold

Maxwell, January Get Pot at Palm Springs

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—The Palm Springs Golf Classic was played for a local charity, but two Texans who live only three blocks apart made it even more of a local benefit by winning most of the prize money.

Of the two, plump Billy Maxwell of Dallas won more prestige, by playing 90 holes of golf in 345 strokes.

But slender Don January of Dallas won a lot more money, by playing one hole of golf in one stroke.

Maxwell, who hadn't won a tournament on the PGA tour since the 1958 Memphis Open, got $5,300 for coming home ahead of 63 other pros in Sunday's final round.

January won a $50,000 bonus prize for scoring a hole in one—the first of his 24-year golfing career—three days earlier.

A non-Texan, handsome Ken Venturi, probably won the most sympathy by blowing a slim lead with a 4-over-par 8 on the fourth to last hole of the tournament.

Venturi, of Palo Alto, Calif., wound up tied for fifth.

The last 18 holes were played at Tamarisk Country Club, where the men in charge of pin placement accomplished their job in such a devilish manner that the course might have been the toughest of the five used during the five-day event.

Maxwell shot a 1-under-par 71 and finished two strokes ahead of Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif. Sanders, who covered the final 18 in 69, won $3,400.

Arnold Palmer, who won here a year ago with a final-round 65, finished with a flourish again, but his 69 left him with an over-all score of 348, a stroke behind Sanders. Palmer won $2,200.

Bill Casper Jr. took fourth prize of $1,900 with a 75 and a 349 total.

Venturi and Bob Rosburg tied for fifth at 350 and got $1,600 apiece.

January's 90-hole score of 359 actually increased his earnings here to more than $50,000. He got $18.34 for tying for 40th place. He has won $54,160 this year.

Archers' Stock Up As Fullmer Falters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Undeclared Joey Archer's upset victory over middleweight contender Don Fullmer of the fighting family of West Jordan, Utah, may move him up in class.

The 22-year-old New York longshoreman showed promise in gaining a split decision over the 21-year-old Fullmer in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

It was Archer's 30th triumph in four years of pro battling. The defeat snapped Fullmer's unbeaten streak at eight. The kid brother of NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer has a 24-41 record.

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — It took 19 years, 11 months and 21 days for Clifford Combs to reach the point of his original assignment with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Gunnery Sgt. Combs arrived at Parris Island on July 1, 1960. He explained that when he enlisted Aug. 10, 1940, he was dispatched to Parris Island, but got only as far as Yemassee, S. C., before a hurricane hit the area.

The storm damaged the base so badly recruits were sent elsewhere for training.

Before reaching Parris Island, Sgt. Combs saw action in many spots including Guadalcanal, New Britain, Pelilieu and Okinawa. He also was a civilian from 1946 until 1951, when he returned to active duty with a reserve unit.

NBA Light Heavy Title at Stake

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Boxing Association's version of the world light heavyweight boxing title, stripped from Archie Moore for his failure to defend within the time limit, will be up for grabs Tuesday at Miami Beach.

Harold Johnson, 32-year old Philadelphia who once was knocked out by Moore in a title fight (1954), is favored to win the vacated title in a 15-round match with Jesse Bowdry, 23-year-old St. Louis boxer. Bowdry whipped Willie Pastrano Dec. 27 at Miami Beach to get the shot.

There will be no television. Each fighter has put up $5,000 to guarantee a defense against a top NBA contender within 90 days, if he wins.

Tigers Get Third In Mat Tourney

Circleville's wrestling team finished third in the rugged Worthington Invitational tournament Saturday.

Whitehall grabbed the championship with 91 points. Host Worthington finished with 60 and Circleville had 54. On down the line it was Sandusky 48, Upper Arlington 37, Toledo Devilbiss 36, Franklin Heights 32 and Fremont Ross four.

Coming through in fine style for Circleville was Bobby Owens who earned the tournament championship in the 123-pound class. The undefeated Tiger earned his title with a decision over Evans of Franklin Heights.

The Tigers also racked up two seconds, two thirds and two fourths. Getting the seconds for CHS were Dave Troutman in the 130 class and John Williams in the 168.

THIRDS were picked up by Tim Mogan in the 115 division and Rupert Rudd in the heavyweight. Fourthers were earned by Ray Winger in the 136 class and Phil Wing in the 148.

Whitehall established itself as powerhouse of the tourney by taking seven championships and one fourth place. Worthington battled for one championship, three seconds, three thirds and one fourth.

Baylor Is Hot, But So Is Wilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If Elgin Baylor could play all his games against the Detroit Pistons, his race with Wilt Chamberlain for the National Basketball Association scoring lead might be closer—and the second-place race in the NBA Western Division might not be so close.

Baylor has averaged over 41 points in 11 games against the Pistons this season, well above his figure for all games. He tossed in 45 Sunday as he led the Los Angeles Lakers to a 125-120 victory that trimmed Detroit's second-place margin to 1½ games.

So what happened to Baylor in the personal duel? He lost more ground as Chamberlain scored 55 points—11 in an overtime period—and led the Philadelphia Warriors to a 136-128 victory over the hapless New York Knickerbockers.

New School Marks First Homecoming

Logan Elm celebrated its first basketball Homecoming with a 48-37 victory over Kingston Saturday night.

The Pickaway County league leading Braves jumped to an early lead of 8-2 in the first quarter and held a margin the rest of the way.

The potent combination of Chuck Spangler and Denny Valentine furnished the scoring incentive. Spangler, an outside shooting expert, netted 13 points, and Valentine, another neat artist from the side, dropped in 11.

Dan Vollmar was the top point getter for Kingston with 11 on three buckets and five foul tosses. The Logan Elm reserve team pushed its record to 14-1 by handing the yearling Redskins a 42-27 defeat.

Logan Elm 4-13; Fox 2-5-9; Spangler 6-1-13; Hart 4-0-8; Clark 2-0-4; Willey 1-1-3. Totals 19-10-48.

Lancaster Synagogue Is Damaged by Fire

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—Fire started in the basement and burned up through the first floor pews at the B'nai Israel Synagogue in downtown Lancaster Sunday night. Damage was heavy, especially due to intense heat which peeled off interior paint and melted out a stained glass window, but no estimate of loss was made. No one was in the stonebuilt synagogue, formerly a German Lutheran church, when the fire broke out. Cause was undetermined.

Boys' Cowboy Play Proves Too Realistic

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two youths played cowboys a little realistically Sunday, and it resulted in Billy Williams, 9, going to the hospital for treatment of a bullet wound in the hand. Police said his playmate, age 11, used a .38 caliber revolver for a sixgun. The older boy was referred to Juvenile Court.

Views on TV - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—You can't beat network television for parades, inaugurations, beauty contests and football games. It does a great job showing us what's happening in Laos and outer space.

But when there are 16 inches of snow on the ground and the flakes are still coming down, when the wind is blowing wildly and the electric light is flickering alarmingly, it's TV's older, less glamorous sister, radio, we turn to. And the best station is the one closest to home.

On Friday night, during the big snowstorm that raised hob with much of the Northeast, the television network news shows didn't help much. When you are straining your ears listening for an approaching snow plow, it's hard to feel much interest in the sight of deserted streets in midtown New York or of motorists digging out in Chicago.

On Saturday afternoon, news-happy NBC enterprisingly slapped together a special storm program entitled "Billion Dollar Bulee." It was hardly worth the trouble.

It was just some more snow scenes, an elderly gent in Pittsburgh announcing it was the worst winter in 70 years, a very long telephone interview — not even pictures — with some Virginia school superintendent with 41 storm-bound students and, of course, a sunny scene from California.

But good gray radio was magnificent. Most stations — and I was getting stations far away abandoned their regular programs in favor of a steady stream of local storm news.

The top ten records were put on the shelf. Storm-bound house-holders were instructed how to handle emergencies, told how to uncover fire hydrants or mark them in some way, notified of cancellations of public affairs. We were kept up to the minute on road conditions, warned where chains were necessary and told precisely which highways were impassable.

Shawnee Unit Trips Prairie Lanes Team

Shawnee Lanes of Chillicothe defeated the local Prairie Lanes team in a return match at Chillicothe yesterday.

Harold Stonerock, formerly of Circleville, led Shawnee with games of 246, 236 and 199 for a series of 681. Teammates W. Taylor had 499, Ed Olson 569, E. Hausman 576 and W. Highland 545.

Mike Brown set the pace for Prairie Lanes with a 562. Walt Zahard hit 553, Bob Callihan 552, Art McGran 548 and Glenn Weiler 517.

Total score was Shawnee 2,886, Prairie 2,732 — both without handicap.

Ohio River Freeze Is Bad But Not Like in 'Old Days'

CINCINNATI (AP) — This winter's seige of subfreezing weather has produced serious ice conditions on the 981-mile long Ohio River but it has been "nothing like it was in the old days."

The "old days" in this case was the winter of 1917-18.

The river was so gorged with ice that when the first break-up occurred in the closing days of January it produced the fastest rise in the river here in its recorded history.

In 24 hours, beginning at 6 a.m. on Jan. 30, 1918, the stream here rose 26 feet from 22.7 feet to 48.5 feet. Thirty-four hours later it reached a crest of 61.2 feet or a total rise of 38.5 feet in 58 hours.

Ten days later, on Feb. 12 it crested again at 61.8 feet after ice gorges in the Licking River gave

Ex-GI Kills Family of 3, Then Himself

GNADENHUTTEN, Ohio (AP) —Tuscarawas County authorities today still sought the answer to a big question: Why did quiet-mannered George Bundy, a former Navy pilot, beat and stab to death his wife and two children and then take his own life?

The grisly killings in Bundy's modest, five-year-old home in this east central Ohio village were discovered Saturday. Coroner Philip T. Doughten said it appeared to be a case of triple murder and suicide, but withheld an official ruling as two sheriff's deputies continued investigation.

They checked into the background of Bundy, described as devoted to his family but highly nervous. He worked for a brick company, but had been laid off periodically in recent weeks.

Sheriff Tony Young said Bundy, 38, was involved in an automobile accident about 11 hours before the bodies were found. Bundy did not appear to have been injured. His car, however, was badly damaged and was towed to a garage.

He apparently came home after the accident. His wife, Eileen, 39, and the children, Judith Ann, 10, and Charles Jr., 5, were murdered in their sleep.

Bundy's body was found hanging from a rafter in the garage. Deputies, noting a chest wound, figured Bundy had tried to kill himself with the same kitchen knife used on the others.

DEAD WIVES TALE—Authorities in Pine City, Minn., are looking into the mysterious background of 60-year-old Levi Hunter (above), after receiving a letter of inquiry from a Painbridge, Ga., widow while arrangements were being made for Hunter's funeral. It turned out that the body in Hunter's burned farm home wasn't his at all. Hunter is twice a widower, courted through lonely hearts letters, and once served term for abduction for immoral purposes.

way and there was backwater from a 30-mile gorge in the Ohio at Sugar Creek, Ky., 53 miles below Cincinnati.

The old excursion sidewheeler "Island Queen"—predecessor of the one lost at Pittsburgh in 1947—was swept from her moorings at the mouth of the Kentucky but was brought safely to shore at Louisville.

Hundreds of other river boats were crushed at their mooring or were carried away. They included such old sidewheelers as "City of Cincinnati" and "City of Louisville."

There have been estimates that the break-up of the ice caused damage of two million dollars.

The records of the U. S. Weather Bureau and the U. S. Army Engineers Division, Ohio River, for that year offer proof that "a little rain and warmer weather" may not always be the best way of getting ice out of the river.

Winter began setting the stage in late November of 1917 when there were 10 straight days of below freezing weather. Then a more severe cold wave hit on Dec. 8 and here in Cincinnati the temperature dropped below zero for the next nine days.

By the morning of Dec. 10 there was so much ice in the river that virtually all navigation was suspended. An ice gorge formed at the Fernbank Dam, 10 miles below Cincinnati, and by Dec. 12 it extended back to Cincinnati itself.

The Sugar Creek Gorge began forming on Dec. 16, 53 miles below Cincinnati and it held firm from then until Feb. 12.

In the period from Dec. 8, 1917 until Feb. 7, 1918, Cincinnati had 16 days in which the temperature dropped below zero. Vevay, Ind., had 22 days of such weather.

The so-called "permanent" gorge at Sugar Creek was followed by these:

At Cincinnati on Dec. 17; at Maysville, Ky., on Jan. 1; at Portsmouth, Ohio, Jan. 3; at Ashland, Ky., Jan. 12 at Huntington,

Avalanches Cause Havoc High in Alps

ROME (AP)—Sunny, springlike weather coming after snowstorms has brought great masses of snow tumbling down from the high peaks in the Alps. Highways and railroads are blocked, mountain villages isolated and at least 37 persons were killed.

Two giant avalanches 60 miles apart killed eight persons Sunday in Italy's northern mountains.

Many tons of snow smashed down upon the tiny village of Rochemolles, 6,100 feet up on Mt. Mellisse on the Italian-French border.

Rescuers dug out seven injured persons from houses shattered by the snow. Bodies of two men and two women were found. Eighteen of the hamlet's 30 homes were destroyed.

The toll in the village of 250 people might have been higher but most of the younger people had left home for the winter to work at nearby ski resorts.

Sixty miles to the east, an estimated 10 million cubic feet of snow roared down the side of Great St. Bernard Mountain.

The avalanche crushed two wooden barracks for laborers on the tunnel being drilled through the mountain to provide an all-weather highway between Italy and Switzerland. Three men and a woman, employed as caretakers while work is suspended for the winter, were killed.

Snowslides Sunday blocked a highway in the Italian Aosta Valley, imprisoned eight big trucks at the Austrian-Swiss frontier, covered the Rome-Paris rail line near the village of Lapraz, France and buried a skier on a cross-country trek near Guillestre, France.

Segregated School Gets OK of Negroes

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Negroes who bucked the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to vote for a new segregated elementary school said they did so because of the problem of overcrowded schools.

Negroes in Sussex County, Delaware's southernmost county, voted 441 to 19 in favor of construction of a $543,000 school which must be segregated under state law, state officials reported. About 40 per cent of the eligible Negro voters were represented.

The NAACP had called for a "no" vote on the ground that construction would entrench segregation.

The school will have 367 pupils who now attend four schools which will be closed.

The legislature already has appropriated funds to build the school. The State Board of Education was not required to hold the opinion poll.

Delaware has been ordered by a federal court to admit to white schools by next September all Negroes who seek such admission.

State Aid Here Near $2.4 Million

Out of the $1.5 billion dollars that the state of Ohio spent during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1960, $2,397,504 went to Pickaway County in the form of direct payments to local governments and individuals, the annual report of State Auditor James A. Rhodes shows.

This total does not include unemployment benefits, workmen's compensation, state highway expenditures, payrolls of state employees in the county, leases, rents or spending on state parks lakes and wildlife.

County payments shown in the Rhodes report include distributions of gasoline taxes, motor vehicle license fees, sales tax, liquor license fees, poor relief money and intangible taxes collected by the state. They also include money sent to schools, old age pension payments and other welfare payments to individuals in the county.

These direct payments to local governments and individuals amounted to $560,623,150 out of the $1.6 billion that the state received during the 12 months. This was approximately 35 per cent of total state revenue.

The state distributed $176,276,303 to local governments for general purposes from auto licenses, gasoline tax, sales and intangible taxes, liquor permit fees, motor transportation tax. Political subdivisions in Pickaway County received $828,709.

STATE payments to Pickaway County for various purposes included:

Special purposes $839,026, which was composed of $675,653 school foundation program; $25,379 school lunch program; $16,411 school milk program; $108,437 poor relief; $9,632 agricultural society; $1,900 health district and $1,612 criminal costs subsidy.

The school foundation subsidy was divided $507,762 from the foundation program, $3,930 transportation; $140,633 teacher's retirement; $23,328 school employees, retirement.
